

What is Northland Library Tutor?

Northland Library Tutor is an online tutoring service that serves people of all ages, from kindergarten through adult. Students can get help in four basic areas: English, math, science and social studies. Adults can receive assistance in areas such as resume writing and help with work-related projects.

Who can use Northland Library Tutor?

This service is available to anyone using a computer in the library. Just click on the Northland Library Tutor logo on the home page of the library website to be connected. Residents of our five supporting municipalities (Bradford Woods, Franklin Park, Marshall Township, Town of McCandless and Ross Township) who have a Northland Library card can also access this service from a home or business computer by clicking on the same logo and entering their card number.

When is Northland Library Tutor available?

Northland Library Tutor is available seven days a week from 3:00pm to 10:00pm.

What will happen when I log onto Northland Library Tutor?

You will be connected to the Tutor.com website, which oversees this program. You will be asked what area you are looking for help with, and then be connected to an online classroom, where a certified tutor will work with you in a one-on-one chat room setting, complete with a whiteboard, to help resolve your educational or work-related issue.

There is no set time limit for each tutorial session. You will be able to print out a complete record of your session once it is completed.

How are the tutors selected?

Tutor.com has more than 2,000 certified tutors, whose background and educational qualifications are thoroughly screened before they are allowed to provide any tutorial service to the public. This service has provided more than 3 million one-on-one tutorial sessions. For more information on Tutor.com's library programs please visit www.tutor.com/libraries.

How is Northland Library Tutor funded?

Northland Library Tutor is funded by Magoo's Bar and Bistro, Praxair, and the Northland Library Foundation.
